Baseball League.

Meeting of Representatives at Macleod.

A meeting of representatives of the different baseball clubs of Southern Alberta was held in Macleod on Wednesday last. Representatives were present from Tabor, Lethbridge, Macleod, Pincher Creek, Grannan, Claresholm, Staveley and Nanton. After considerable discussion it was decided that, on account of the big distances to be travelled and the poor train connections west of Macleod and west of Tabor, two leagues should be formed, one consisting of the towns along the Crow's Nest line between Tabor and Pincher Creek and the other of the towns along the north line.

The Crow's Nest league was organized at this meeting and a schedule drawn up. Owing to there being no representatives from High River or Okotoks the north line league was not organized, but it was decided to call a meeting of delegates from all the towns along the line in Nanton next Wednesday.

After each of the leagues have played their scheduled games. A series of games will be arranged between the leagues of each league to decide the championship of Southern Alberta.

This two league arrangement will not prevent any of the towns in either league arranging exhibition games with any of the teams of the other league and it is expected that many good games will be thus arranged for. All the towns in each league will be strictly amateur and plenty of good sport in the baseball line may be looked for this summer.

J. F. Reynolds and A. W. Reynolds are the representatives from Claresholm.

the criminal, no clue can be found. The robbery was committed at the Imperial hotel last Tuesday, and Wilmut was sent to watch the back of the house to catch the culprit, with the result above stated. The victim's relatives live at Lethbridge, Lethbridge.

Meadow Creek.

Mr. R. Bisset has purchased a quarter section of land from Mr. Bigelow.

On Saturday last, while helping Mr. Bisset remove a shack from his place, Mr. Oron Bigelow was caught between a wagon wheel and the building and had his leg considerably bruised.

Mrs. Stolz, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Matheson, has returned to her home in Idaho.

The Correct Diagnosis.

At the recent trial of Samuel J. Parks on the charge of extortion, evidence of Police Devery appeared for a little while in the court room.

"I have no particular business here," Devery said. "Only Parks is a friend of mine, and I want to go to him my mind set."

Then, before he left the court room, Mr. Devery told a story about a young doctor.

"This young doctor," he said, "had the habit of drinking too much in the evening after working hard."

One night his back went, a rich and straight-laced old woman, sent for him, and he decided he would make a call on her, though he was pretty far gone, and he knew it.

"So he took another drink to brace him, got in his carriage, and drove to the rich old woman's house. He found her in bed. He asked her a question or two, and she asked him the time of his thick voice, and then he took hold of her wrist to count her pulse."

"But he found he couldn't count her pulse; he was too far gone even for that. Turning a deep purple with mortification and shame, he said, 'Thank you, doctor,' and without another word he staggered out of the room and went home."

"Next morning, as he lay in bed, putting off getting up because his head ached, a letter was brought to him, and he opened it with a groan, for he recognized the handwriting of his rich old woman patient, and he knew that now she was giving him his dismissal."

"But when he opened the letter, out dropped a check for $150, and he read something like this:

"Dear Doctor: I know only too well that you discovered, on visiting me last night, the unfortunate and shameful condition in which I had placed myself by accident; but trust that you will regard what you witnessed as a professional secret, and I enclose a small check, that will, I hope, be sufficient to repay you for your trouble."

Burglars Kill Policeman

Frank, Alta., April 12.—G. S. Wilmut, a member of the R. N. W. M. P., was shot early this morning in the rear of the Imperial hotel. He was discovered lying dead in a pool of blood at 7 a. m., the body being still warm. An examination revealed a large slug wound in the neck on the right side. For the last week there have been several burglaries in town including the Krebs hardware store, which was broken into and the cash box rifled. An attempt was also made to rob the Imperial hotel. Wilmut was stationed on duty for the night, and it happened that the policeman was shot in attempting to arrest the party. There is no clue to the murderer so far and an inquest will be held. Wilmut was shot in the neck with a shotgun, the whole charge entering the neck and leaving a terrible hole in it and severing the wind pipe. Wilmut came to the Pass on February 25th, from Pincher Creek, where he was well known. Sergeant Hasset, who is in charge here, wired Inspector Heiler and Inspector Pinney of Macleod, and both of whom are at the scene of the crime. Coroner Disney, of Coleman held an inquest this afternoon. The jury viewed the body and adjourned until Monday. Although the police are doing all in their power to find

Bolton's head at the clock as he stepped into the office. A freight train as the breathless ever which he trucks to town had blocked the train and he had been forced to wait for some time before he could reach the office. Arriving after a series of transfers, he found Bolton's catch in the door beneath the door was going out of town.

The door Bolton had been working

It would have made up the rain needed to complete the purchase of the little house he wanted to offer Edna Carrill as a home, and it might have a year or two before another such deal would occur.

with to build a palace. If a woman loves a man she does not marry him because he is able to offer a profession home.

"Would you marry me with the little I have to offer?" he asked. "It was not I thought of, dear."

Her hand crept across the table and into his own. "For course I would if you asked me," she said, with a happy little laugh. "But I am afraid that you are going to let me go to town tonight."

"It was going to," he admitted, "but the little visit has done so much to give me new courage that I realize more than ever how much I need you.
Will you marry me, then, this morning or tomorrow, with the chance that I may be home for awhile?"

The "Yes" was whispered so softly that he guessed rather than heard the answer, and his face grew radiant at the thought that this great business was to be his.

"I don't care now about the loss of the deal or the wreck or even the rain," he cried. "I have you, and with it I will always be sunshine and good fortune."

As though in answer, a beam of sunlight changed the window and fell across the table. Edith looked up.

"There is the sun," he cried. "That last burst of rain must have been the last drop of the storm. The sun is coming through the clouds."

"Let's say the check and get the check," he implored. "I want to have you seated next to me."

His face was lit with merriment as Bolton thrust the card toward him. "I thought I should not let you go without a check."

NOTICE.

Watches and other repairs not called for this week will be at Geo. Earn's store, where they can be obtained. R. A. GILLIES.

The sale of Messrs. Anderson & Hunter's butcher shop was put through by Mr. T. L. Bernard.

The lumber sent here for the farmers' elevator last fall was sent by Mr. Lockwood. The deal was put through by Mr. T. L. Bernard.

Don't forget the sale of work at Church of England Rectory next Wednesday.

Mrs. C. E. Tillotson, Mrs. R. E. Moffatt, Mrs. R. A. Fisher, Mrs. Jas. Clerk and Misses' Ketcheson, Barbour and Slicks are visitors to Calgary today.

A wrestling match of much local interest is to take place on 1st May between W. Averil and W. B. Blackford. The match is for a side bet of $100. Of this amount each man has already deposited $10.00 to show that they mean business.

Mr. John Goodwill has been appointed local agent for Clareholm and district for the consumers, Tailors Co. of Toronto. This firm turns out the best line of made to measure clothing in Canada. For quality and prices for your money, no other establishment can be measured at W. L. Walsh's store.

Fred Anderson had a narrow escape the other day from being severely injured. While attending to his horses one of them, a broncho, kicked him in the center of the chest. Fred Anderson, fortunately, happened to be so far away that the horse could just reach him and he escaped with little more than a scar.

An interesting event in local theatrical history will be the initial representation in this town next Friday, 24th April, at the Opera House, of the new play with the splendid cast, "What Women will Do." The play deals with the idyllic rural life during the first and last acts, but the other scenes are laid in Paris and depicts the everyday life of modern life. The play touches a beautiful moral lesson and shows the inevitable triumph of virtue over vice. The piece is full of comedy and happy surprises, and promises laughter and pathos in a natural and human manner. The excellent cast, special scenery, electric effects and a number of musical specialties are some of the varied features of Holden Bros. & Edwards' big production. Founded on Charles Dickens' "David Copperfield."

Change of Business.

The Clareholm Livery Barn changed hands on Monday, 1st inst. One and Wallace purchasing agent. The deal was put through by Mr. T. L. Bernard.

Notice to Parents.

As the percentage of attendance for last month was cut down so much because of sickness in the town and as it is desired to prevent a similar cutting down of the percentage for this month and consequently the cutting down of the government grant, it is thought best by the School Board that parents having children to start to school not to send them until 1st May when all children beginning school should be sent.

T. M. HART, Chairman.

Easter Sale.

The ladies of the W. A. of St. Aidan's church will hold a sale of fancy and useful articles at Rectory next Wednesday, April 22nd, afternoon and evening. Everybody is welcome to attend, whether they wish to buy or not. Admission free. Two & a half will be served both afternoon and evening at the small charge of 10 cents.

Polo Club.

A meeting was held in the Barnard Estate office on Monday, 13th inst., for the purpose of organizing a polo club. Mr. Travis Hagley was elected president, Charles James, secretary, with Tom Klugey as captain. Dudley Munroe, Bill Innes and H. J. Stewart form the committee. The boys have just received the necessary equipment of sticks and balls from Calgary and they expect in a few weeks to give High River a good game.

BURN WINS.

Terway Quit after Twelve Miles.

The big race billed to take place yesterday afternoon proved to be rather a one-sided affair and that was not very favorable to Clareholm or the Clareholm runner.

In going to a heavy wind the race did not take place until near 5 o'clock in the evening. A large crowd gathered to see the start and a much larger one to see the finish of the race.

The race started on the race track at 4.45. Burn took the lead from the beginning and for the first two miles he was closely followed by Terway. In the fourth lay Terway commenced to fall behind and when the contestants crossed the track, south of the town, he was fully one quarter of a mile behind. This distance he kept until about the first eight miles of the distance was covered. From that on, Terway seemed to lose ground gradually. He continued, however, for four miles farther, that is, about twelve miles from the start. Here he was nearly a mile behind Burn. For the last two or three miles it was quite evident to those who were with him that Terway was not in proper form or at least there was something the matter with him. The cause of his splitting the race was on account of the contraction of the muscles in his legs, which prevented him from taking his usual long stride. Burn followed the race with the exception of the last half mile, but during the last mile it was evident that he was about all in. The time made by Burn for the 12 miles was 2 hours 12 minutes. He put up a good clean run from start to finish and seeing that it was his first 20-mile race he made a good showing.

There seems to be something wrong with Terway physically, which makes his racing very uncertain. He ran 15 miles over the same course a few days ago in 1 hour and 35 minutes. If he had in to be the same time yesterday he would have given Burn a run for his money.

Clareholm's Big Race Meet.

One of the biggest events in the history of Clareholm will be its grand race meeting which takes place here on May 28th and 29th. Lovers of good racing sport will surely find all they desire in the programme which will be located in perfect form in a few days.

The events and purses are as follows:

1st Day, May 28th.

1. 224 pace or 219 trot, purse $500.

2. 235 pace or 230 trot, purse $500.

3. 1st mile heats, 2 in 8 (running) purse $175.

4. Victoria purse, 1 mile, $175.

5. Amateur cup (gentleman riders) race, value $25, with $40 to winner and $15 to second.

2nd Day, May 29th.

6. 217 pace or 212 trot, purse $500.

7. Clareholm Derby, 1-1-8 mile, $250.

8. Southern Alberta purse, 1 mile, $150.

9. Merchants' purse, 4-8 mile, $150.

10. 3-minute trot or pace for $75. Horses owned in Clareholm or vicinity.

"What Women will Do."

Harry Jackson's new play will be at the Opera House, on Friday, 24th April. It is the most dramatic success of the season. The play is not a dramatization, but the story suggested by Charles Dickens' great novel "David Copperfield."

To write a play from any of Dickens' works is a much more difficult matter than one would imagine, but Mr. Jackson, by taking the principal characters and incidents, and interlarding some ideas of his own, has constructed a play that has been received enthusiastically wherever presented this season. Holden Bros. & Edwards have always been great factors in the dramatic field. A number of their attractions are now playing at the Star & Lyttelton this year. They consider "What Women will Do" the best piece of theatrical property before the public.

today, and have spared no expense in making the production. The scenic effects are perfect in every detail, and the company the strongest and most popular of the kind. Press and public have been unanimous in declaring the above attraction a perfect success. Manager Rosen has secured the attraction previous to their departure for the west, and promises his patrons a play full of heart interest, possessing all the elements of a pastoral drama, and with many laughs as a farce comedy.

OPERA HOUSE

FRIDAY, April 24
 HOLDEN BROS. & EDWARDS' Greatest Success

"WHAT WOMEN WILL DO."

Founded on Charles Dickens' "DAVID COPPERFIELD."

Don't fail to see this Great Show.

A FEW THINGS THAT WOMEN WILL DO:

FOR LOVE. They will suffer poverty, sickness and pain. They will accept man's abuse and never complain. And if trouble should come, they'll surely prove true. To man that they love. That's "What Women will Do."

FOR REVENGE. They'll follow a rival and hunt her to death. They'll curse one who would wrong With their very last breath. It's the old, old story, there is no new. When you try to explain, "What Women will Do."

FOR DUTY. They'll nurse their babies and cook the food. They'll stick to a man he had no good. They'll stick at fate no matter how low. For duty alone. That's "What Women will Do."

FOR PASS TIME. They will love you, or hate you. They will kiss or berate you. They'll be false to a man, or be true. They will kill you with kindness. They will love you blindfolded. That's just "What Women will Do."

THE DRAMA. In this play, full of love, pathos and fun. We will show how love in real life is shown. How women can hate, how women can love. How a man can be false or be true. And prove beyond doubt that the men are as true to blame. For just "What Women will Do."

Seats on Sale at Medical Hall.

PRICES - - - Reserved $1. 75c. and 50c.

Make it Yourself

Tells our Readers
how to mix best Rheumatism Cure

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the readers of a large
New York daily paper the following valuable, yet simple and harmless, prescription, which any one can easily prepare at home:

Wild extract dandelion, one-half ounce; compound kargon, one ounce; compound syrup sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Mix by shaking well in a bottle,
and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost, and, being of vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.

This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any, diminishes with each dose, until permanent results are obtained and without injuring the stomach.
While there are many so-called rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

Inquiry at the drug stores of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately, or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers, if asked to.
